COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

STATE CORPORATION COMMISSION

AT RICHMOND, AUGUST 3, 2001

APPLICATION OF

BROADBAND OFFICE COMMUNICATIONS - VIRGINIA, INC.

CASE NO. PUC010147

For termination of local exchange and interexchange telecommunications services

ORDER

On February 16, 2000, the State Corporation Commission ("Commission") issued Certificate No. T-479 permitting the provision of local exchange telecommunications services and Certificate No. TT-86A permitting the provision of interexchange telecommunications services to BroadBand Office Communications - Virginia, Inc. ("BroadBand" or "Company"), in Case No. PUC990212. By petition filed June 29, 2001, and supplemented on July 13, 2001, BroadBand advised that its parent company had entered bankruptcy, and it therefore requested permission to terminate its provision of local exchange and interexchange telecommunications services pursuant to those certificates.

NOW THE COMMISSION, being sufficiently advised, will grant the requested relief effective August 15, 2001. The Company shall immediately notify all its remaining customers of the date of termination of service and cooperate to the extent needed to facilitate the transition of such customers to other carriers.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

(1) This matter shall be docketed and assigned Case No. PUC010147.

(2) The petition of BroadBand is hereby GRANTED effective August 15, 2001.

(3) The Company's tariffs are hereby cancelled effective August 15, 2001.

(4) The Company shall immediately notify any remaining customers of the date of termination of their service.

(5) This matter is dismissed.
